[Article XI, Section 11.0.5]

Article VI. Protection of Directors, Officers and others

Section 6.01 Limitation of liability

- (a) Every volunteer Director and Officer of the Society, in exercising their powers and discharging their duties, shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Society by exercising the care, diligence and skill a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.
- (b) Subject to the foregoing no Director or Officer, while serving the Society, shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Director or Officer or employee or for joining in any receipt or act for conformity, or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the Society through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by the Society or for, or on behalf of, the Society or for any loss, conversion, misapplication or misappropriation or any damage resulting from any dealings with monies, securities or other assets belonging to the Society or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever which may happen in the execution of the duties of their respective office or trust or in relation thereto.
- (c) The volunteer Directors, while serving the Society's wishes shall not be under any duty or responsibility in respect of any contract, act, or transaction whether or not made, done or entered into the name of, or on behalf of, the Society except such as shall have been submitted to and authorized or approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 6.02 Indemnity

The Society shall indemnify a Director or Officer, a former Director or Officer, or volunteer person who acts or acted at the Society's request as a Director or Officer, and his heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives from, and against:

- (a) any liability and all costs, charges and expenses they may sustain or incur in respect of any action, suit or proceedings proposed or commenced against them for, or in respect of, anything done or permitted by them in respect to the execution of the duties of their office.
- (b) all other costs, charges and expenses they sustain or incur in respect of the affairs of the Society.

- (c) in the case of a criminal or administrative action (or other proceeding which is enforced by a monetary penalty) they had reasonable grounds for believing their conduct was lawful; except where such liability relates to their failure to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Society.

Nothing in this Section shall limit the right of any person entitled to indemnity to claim indemnity apart from the provisions of this Section.

Section 6.03 Insurance

The Society may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any person against any liability incurred by them in their capacity as a volunteer Director or Officer of the Society where they act, or acted, in that capacity at the Society's request. General Insurance for ACL will be procured separately from providers recommended by the EFCL.

Article VII. Elections and Term of office

Section 7.01 Officers of ACL are elected to a two (2) year term.

Section 7.02 Any Community Member, in good standing, shall be eligible to serve in any office of ACL. For ACL Bylaw purposes, 'in good standing' shall mean: a paid up member; have not been convicted of illegal activity while serving as a member, don't owe money to the ACL organization.

Section 7.03 Executive Board members will stand for election on alternating years at the AGM.

Article IX. Remuneration

Section 9.01 No Director, Officer or Committee Member will receive any remuneration for serving as an Officer of the ACL.

Section 9.02 Any Executive or Community Member may receive reimbursement for planned expenses, upon presentation of receipts, incurred as a result of performing stated duties on behalf of ACL.

Article X. Administration

Section 10.01 The secretary will have charge of the seal of the ACL, which will be authenticated by the signature of the President.

Section 10.02 In the absence of a Secretary, these duties will be discharged by an Officer appointed by the Executive Board until the next AGM where an election can be held.

Section 10.03 The seal will be kept at the ACL office and used only when authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors. It will be affixed to documents and instruments when required by law.

Section 10.04 ACL Executive Board may hire administrative staff to operate the facility, deliver programming, or to oversee projects (which may require a dedicated project manager) only with prior approval at a Special or Regular Meeting.

Article XI. Financial Procedures

Section 11.01 The fiscal year of the ACL will be from September 01 to August 31.

Section 11.02 The accounts of the ACL, or of any Committee, will be open to inspection by any Community Member, member of the Executive Board, or by any authorized government agency.

Section 11.03 Whenever required, as deemed by the Executive Board, ACL will arrange for an audit by an appropriate party(s) so as to satisfy the need as identified by the Board.

Section 11.04 The Executive Board may open accounts, designate signing authorities, or transact ACL business in accordance with the provisions of these By-laws.

Section 11.05 The annual budget of ACL will be presented for approval at each AGM. No single expenditure in excess of $10,000.00 will be made by the Executive Board without approval of the Community Membership at a previously held Regular or Special Meeting.

Section 11.06 Total annual expenditure by the Executive Board will be limited to a maximum of $20,000.00 unless otherwise authorized for that year at a duly constituted Regular or Special Meeting.

Section 11.07 One-time expenditures by the Executive Board (excluding normal course of business items) will be limited to a total annual maximum of $20,000 unless authorized otherwise for that year at a duly constituted Regular or Special Meeting.

Article XII. Amending these By-laws

Section 12.01 These By-laws may be cancelled, altered, or added to by a Special Resolution at any AGM of the ACL.

Section 12.02 The notice of the AGM at which it is proposed to amend the By-laws, must include details of the proposed amendment to the By-laws.

Section 12.03 The amended By-laws take effect after approval of the Special Resolution at the AGM after proper filing of such amendment(s) with Corporate Registry of Alberta.
